HAP Enterprises

Promoting Growth, Independence, & Community

OUR ORIGINS

HAP is a private non-profit agency founded in 1970 and based in Beaver County.

The HAP adult training program began operating on November 30, 1970. Effective January 1, 1971, HAP became the administrator of the Tiny Tot Preschool Program. The organization expanded again in 1973 with the inception of their Community Residential Services.

OUR PHILOSOPHY

HAP is a private non-profit agency founded in 1970 and based in Beaver County.

The HAP adult training program began operating on November 30, 1970. Effective January 1, 1971, HAP became the administrator of the Tiny Tot Preschool Program. The organization expanded again in 1973 with the inception of their Community Residential Services.

OUR SERVICES

We have offered a wide range of services to adults and children with intellectual disability for over 50 years.

We maintain that services should be designed to fit the person's needs, as opposed to having the person fit the parameters of the service. Our programs are designed to teach individuals of all skills levels how to live as independently as possible.

Our Mission

Guided by our family values, The Wright Promise is dedicated to energizing, revitalizing, and enriching our community through the support of social, educational, and religious causes.

Our Objective

The foundation is dedicated to creating lasting positive change through its core promises, focusing on giving back to communities and helping individuals reach their full potential. By leveraging the collective time, talents, and financial resources of its founders and board, the foundation aims to make a meaningful impact on the lives of those in need.

Board of Directors

We are proud to introduce you to the dedicated and passionate members of our foundation's board of directors. Each member brings their own unique skills, experiences, and perspectives to the table, but they all share a common goal: to make a positive impact in our community.
